Malleable Iron and Steel Range

More popular today than yesterday : more popular tomorrow than today. Why? Works equally well with wood, hard or soft coal. Heats all the water needed almost instantly. Saves one-half the cost of fuel. Does not clog with ashes or clinkers, nor allow smoke and dust to escape into the kitchen. Made of the very best grade of malleable iron, cannot crack or break, saving annoyance and expense. Flues lined with asbestos board one-fourth inch in thickness. Entire Range riveted (not boited), air tight and dust tight. Works well all the time and lasts for generations. Ask for the new booklet "All About Majestic Ranges and Kitchen
